RULES FOR NEW ENGLAND CUTTIN' FOR CASH ALL ROUND CHAMPION HORSE COMPETITION

- 1. Entries will be taken for a team combined of 1 Pro and 1 Non-pro run on the same horse and can be from any two events. (A team must consist of a pro trainer and a non pro competing on the same horse, not a non-pro riding the same horse in two separate events) The non-pro nominating in the event must own the horse.
- 2. The scores of both runs will be combined and the horse of the team with the highest aggregate score for the entire show will become the NE CUTTIN' FOR CASH ALL ROUND HORSE for 2018.
- 3. Entries must be nominated and recorded by the secretary prior to the 1st horse of the team competing. No late entries will be accepted under any circumstances.!!
- 4. Once the nomination has been lodged and the 1st horse has competed the nominated team events cannot be changed.
- 5. It is possible for a horse to be nominated in two teams but each run can only be nominated in 1 team. Ie A horse has 3 runs, 1 in the open ridden by the pro and one in the rookies and one in the $5000 NP. That horse can only be nominated in one team either the Open and the Rookies OR the Open and the $5000 NP not both. However if the horse has 4 runs two with the Pro and two with the Non-pro then it may be nominated in two teams using each run only once. The two teams must be nominated before the 1st run takes place.

A PERPETUAL TROPHY AND CHAMPION VESTS WILL BE AWARDED AT THE CONCLUSION OF THE SHOW TO BOTH THE PRO AND THE NON-PRO.

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE 2018 WINNERS STEFAN WIELEBINSKI and GRANT QUIGLEY RIDING FAY REY WITH A COMBINED SCORE OF 289
